He said they only get the used vehicles that are on the best possible conditions, and people can test them before buying. "They can even bring their own mechanics because there is nothing to hide," he said.

Del Norte Liquors offers the best in imported liquors

For over 25 years, Del Norte Liquors has provided Laredoans with the best service in domestic and imported liquors. The Rodriguez family, which took over the business last year, promises to deliver the same service as the past management. "We are doing real good, we had a very good Christmas and Thanksgiving season. We are hoping for a very good year." Owner Richard Rodriguez said. He explained that the business was bought from former owner Ernest Taylor. "Ever since the Rodriguez's took over the business in May of last year, a second Del Norte Liquors has opened its doors. On top of having the original store at 800 East Mann Road, now customers have a second one at 611 Shiloh since it opened in October. Del Norte Liquors offers scotch, bourbon, tequila, cognac, Champagne and a wide variety of wines and beer. Rodriguez explained that they offer a wide range of many imported beers. "We have beer from the Netherlands to Mexico to Switzerland," he said. The liquor store also offers free delivery within a 3-mile radius, and it has over 8 employees eager to help customers.
